We can play music outside until midnight, and in the indoor/disco until closing time at 2am. The volume levels permitted are more than adequate for a DJ. Please check with Aiyanna management for live music and volume levels before booking any performance.

Unfortunately, no fireworks, fire dancers or flying lanterns can be used. We are in a protected area and anything that represents a fire risk is banned by the authorities.

Testimonials

Mother of the bride

“Amazing venue for a wedding abroad. Natalia’s planning and attention to detail just cannot be beaten. From the initial enquiry through to the Wedding day itself she continued to impress and exceed all our expectations so that we felt nothing could possibly have been done to make it any more perfect for our daughter and son in law. Our guests all highly praised her team together with the wonderful Nando orchestrating the most efficient, friendly service and delicious meal. If you are thinking of a wedding in Ibiza then please just don’t hesitate to put this special day in to the very safe hands of Natalia and Aiyanna. It was faultless and worth every single Euro and much more. Unbelievable value for money. Thank you to everyone at Aiyanna it was a truly magical day and the memories created will last forever.”

Sister of the bride

“My sister just got married here on Sunday. Absolutely un-bloody- believable. This place is utterly stunning. The staff are incredible even a few days after the wedding we went for lunch and they made such a fuss of us. Natalia coordinated the whole wedding to absolute perfection. The waiters and waitresses made us feel like family – particularly Nando but all of them were so attentive and just such lovely people. The venue is gorgeous, location is breathtaking and food and service is divine. I can NOT wait to come back LucyLu85.”

Father of the bride

“My daughter and new son in law had the wedding of their dreams and will remember it for a lifetime. That we should experience a complex but highly satisfying week is entirely due to your professional and personal performance, and those of your close colleagues also. We know you work hard to make events just right for your clients, but all of you gave that little bit more, of yourselves, and it showed. May I add my personal thanks to any others that you might also receive from the newlyweds? You all shone throughout and gave us a fabulous event that all who attended will remember. While focusing on the Aiyanna in particular, I must add that the performance of bus operators, car hire, villa lease, catering, photography, flowers and make-up (could you tell that I missed out on that one?) was so good as to mark Ibiza as an excellent destination for discerning visitors.” Viva España and its bright shining stars!
